The Marathas assigned 72 villages to Portuguese in return of their friendship and the group of 72 villages came to be known as Dadra and Nagar Haveli. The Portuguese ruled this Territory until its liberation on 2nd August, 1954. After its liberation, the Administration was carried on by local body known as Free Dadra and Nagar Haveli Administration till its merger with the Indian Union on 11th August, 1961. Consequently, the Free Dadra and Nagar Haveli Administration was succeeded by formal statutory Administration headed by an Administrator.

Dadra and Nagar Haveli comprising of 72 villages including Silvassa and Amli, the Census Town, forms a single District and single Taluka Union territory. All the villages have been divided into 11 Patelads for revenue purpose. For implementation of Panchayati Raj system, 11 Village Panchayats have been constituted consisting of elected members. The U. T. has no legislature.

(ii)
